☐ DNA

☐ REFUSED

☐ UNABLE TO INTERVIEW (Specify Reason)

The subject was transported immediately from the scene to Swedish Covenant Hospital by CFD EMS. Upon release the subject was transported to the 17th District to complete processing.

The undersigned in the company of Sergeant Rick Nigro #2377 interviewed the subjects in an interview room in the 17th District processing area at approx 1055 hours. It was observed that the subject had visible facial injuries. The subject was advised of her Miranda warnings and agreed to answer questions.

The subject indicated that she and her friend had a dispute with employees of the bar. The dispute became physical and she stated she "hit one of the guys," "spit on one of them." She indicated that the facial injuries were the result of an attack on her by unknown bar employees that she could recognize. The undersigned arranged for a case report to be prepared for that alleged battery [REDACTED]

The subject stated she was sorry for any problems she caused with the police officers. She stated she never saw a person tasered before and so she got upset at the sight of her friend tasered. She stated she was so upset she didn't realize she struck any officers. The subject stated that she had consumed some "Hennessy" during the evening.

76. WATCH COMMANDER/OCIC RATIONALE FOR BOX 77 FINDING

The officers responded to a battery in progress. Upon arrival they were confronted with a fight. The subject jumped on Officer ADOLFIE's back while Officer ADOLFIE was attempting to place her friend in custody thereby classifying her as an assailant under the Use of Force model. Officer COVELLO then did a contact stun with a taser on the subject. The subject continued to hold on to Officer ADOLFIE and Officer COVELLO conducted a second contact stun with the taser and the subject released and fell to the ground. The subject was then handcuffed.

The officers were physically attacked by the subject. They responded with a Taser which is consistent with the Use of Force model. The officers actions were in compliance with Department directives and state statutes.

Per directive re Taser discharge, log 1050459 obtained.
